

Our mission is to provide world-class project management, process improvement, and engineering solutions guided by the highest levels of integrity, professionalism, and innovation.

CORPORATE OVERVIEW

Alluvionic is an 8(a) certified, woman-owned small business specializing in project management, process improvement, engineering, and training services, providing Project Assurance® with every project.

Whether managing a specific project or developing engineering solutions, our goal is to deliver maximum customer ROI. Since no two customers are the same, we work to understand customer needs so that we can adapt and build realistic plans for achieving specific goals. We believe the right processes bring value and purpose and are the foundation to building organizational success.

We are more than consultants; we are a project solutions company. We can be your internal or external facing project managers or teach your team how to manage projects by deploying proven processes and systems. We can assess your organization for gaps against the ISO, CMMI®, and CMMC standards. As an integral partner, we can bring your organization to certification with a customized detailed plan. We provide end-to-end Engineering services from requirements analysis to design, prototype, and test. We offer highly acclaimed training courses in project management and process improvement. These formal classes can be delivered “as is” or tailored to meet specific needs. Recent customers of our training courses include the U.S. Air Force, U.S. Space Force, and local industry professionals.
